for the Maintenance of Hard Roads

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 16.—Adjournment of the house tomorrow morning after a brief session was forecast tonight by members who said they expected a few bills to be introduced and a discussion on the rules to take place. Seventeen bills were offered in today's session including two hard road measures by Representative Homer J.
Tice of Greenville, and an anti-Ku Klux Klan bill by Representative Adelbert H. Roberts, negro, of Chicago.
The senate was not in session.
Among measures being prepared for introduction is one by Representative Martin J. Brennan, Bloomington, to extend the legal limit of three years to five years as the time of office for county judges.
This will perfect a legal technicality now existing in McLean county.
Representative Walter F. Gallas, Chicago, introduced a bill titled "An Act to regulate the civil service in counties of 250,000 or more inhabitants," as proposed by the county civil service commission of Cook county.

ITALY IS TRYING TO HOLD FRANCE DOWN IN GERMANY

Every Effort Being Made to Prevent Extreme Measures

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—To the utmost limits consistent with the preservation of its relations with France and also with Great Britain the Italian government has been exerting itself within the past few days to restrain French officials from proceeding with extreme measures of coercion against Germany.
A clear exposition of Italy's delicate and difficult position in connection with the problem of the Ruhr invasion has been made known to Italy's allies and undoubtedly while not sufficient to cause any sensible change in the French plans, the view of the Rome government have received serious consideration.
A disclosure of the Italian position is likely soon to be made to official Washington and meanwhile some of its features have been learned thru persistent inquiry in informed quarters.
One of the most important disclosures is that the Italian government while of necessity concurring in the decision of the reparations commission that Germany was involuntary fault in the supply of coal and other supplies required to be turned over to the allies, never contemplated a military invasion of the Ruhr.
It is quite clear that what the Italian government supposed was to be done was to leave collections of the overdue reparations in the hands of technical experts and that it is still convinced that such a plan might have worked successfully without the adoption of severe military measures.
In Italian official quarters there has been no thought of break with Great Britain and some of the adverse British press comment upon the course of the Italian members of the reparations commission in siding with France and Belgium has caused regret in Rome. It is understood that the British government has been reassured on this point.
Meanwhile it is believed in Rome that though disapproving of the extreme and forcible measures adopted by the French and Belgians in regard to the Ruhr the Italian government can best serve the cause of peace by continuing in at least formal relations with these two countries so far as reparations are involved.

MAJOR CLUETE OF HARRISSON THINKS ORDER IS MISTAKE

Deplores Action of Governor in Not Sending Troops

(By The Associated Press)
HARRISON, Ark., Jan. 16.—Suspension by Governor McRae today of his order sending a company of Arkansas National Guardsmen here with a possibility of declaring martial law upon the arrival was deplored by Mayor Cluete tonight. Harrison, however, tonight resumed a tranquil appearance after two days of "armed action" in which one man was hanged, another wounded and scores of alleged Missouri & North Arkansas Railway strikers were escorted from town to the Missouri state line accompanied by a committee of 1,000.
Mayor Cluete said he believed the situation was such that troops are needed.
"There are two or three hundred men still on the streets," the mayor said, "and rumors are still in circulation of further possible trouble."
C. C. Gregor, a striker, was the man hanged. A coroner's jury today returned a verdict saying the act was done by persons unknown.
The "committee of 1,000" tonight broke up after holding special sessions behind closed doors for two days and one night and its members are on the way to their respective homes, some of them coming from a distance of 150 miles to assist in the round up. No further trouble is anticipated. The Arkansas legislature this afternoon adopted a resolution authorizing Governor McRae to call out the national guard and declare martial law. The executive then issued the order but tonight rescinded it.
Tonight it was said that virtually every striker in Harrison—about 200—had been ejected from the state or placed in jail by the committee.
Find Body of Gregor
The body of Gregor was found this morning hanging from a railway trestle. Gregor it is said, was hanged after he resisted attempts of the "committee of 1,000" who were seeking to identify persons said to have carried on a campaign of sabotage against the railway company.
Gregor's home was visited by a committee demanding his surrender Monday night. Gregor is alleged to have replied with a revolver shot and escaped from the house in a hail of bullets. Emergency and high explosives were found in Gregor's home, members of the committee charge.
Following the lynching of Gregor, George W. O'Neal, local capitalist who is said to have furnished bail for many strikers arrested and charged with sabotage was taken from his home and severely whipped.
Today he was in the hands of a special committee which he promised to lead to the hiding place of E. D. Stephens, former engineer who, it is said, was wanted by the committee.
Up to a late hour tonight Stephens had not been produced but O'Neal was not further harmed.
Night Marshal Rash, of Harrison, who was accused of being tied, flogged and ordered to "leave town. He is said to have left.
A. J. Russell, United States deputy marshal of Fort Smith, spent today in Harrison investigating the situation on orders of Attorney General Daugherty.

Report Is Made on Furniture Industry

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The federal trade commission in a report issued today on the household furniture industry for the first time traced a manufactured product from producer to consumer thru the peace boom of 1920 and the "buyers strike" and depression which followed.
The consumer's dollar in 1920, the report showed, netted the dealer 13 cents and the manufacturer eight cents but in 1921 the retailers profit declined to seven cents out of each dollar paid by each purchaser and the manufacturers dropped to four cents. Manufacturers in 1920 averaged 28 per cent profit on their inventory including borrowed money and retailers 22 per cent but in 1921 the average profit of each was eight per cent.
Wholesale prices of furniture in 1920 the report stated reached a higher peak than most commodities and subsequently declined more gradually and without approaching so near the pre-war level, but manufacturers reduced their prices in greater proportion than their total cost declined.
Retailers, reluctant to cut prices on large stocks of high priced furniture were about six months behind the manufacturers in passing the reduction to consumers. Installation prices charged by dealers were estimated at least 16 per cent higher than cash prices.
The principal manufacturers associations whose members produced the bulk of the country's furniture were found by the commission to have restricted competition thru resolutions tending to concerted price policy, by price comparison meetings and by adoption of minimum "selling values," and were said to have operated with retailers in 1920 by maintaining prices to permit the latter to dispose of socks.
Retail organizations it added frequently interfered with the sale of furniture by manufacturers to consumers and so-called illegitimate dealers by means of concerted complaints and by publication of the "buyers' guide" and "tattle tales."

RUHR RESIDENTS WONDERING WHERE FRENCH WILL STOP

New Ultimatum Delivered to Mine Directors Yesterday

(By The Associated Press)
ESSEN, Jan. 16.—(By the A. P.)—How far the Franco-Belgian occupation ultimately will extend and what other punitive steps are contemplated are questions uppermost in the minds of the Ruhr population because of the new ultimatum delivered to the mine directors at Duesseldorf today.
General DeGoutte's latest order which is declared to be final, provides for the resumption of the reparations coal deliveries to France and Belgium not later than tomorrow morning, otherwise Germany will be subjected to further penalties. The German mine owners say they were not given a hearing at the Duesseldorf meeting and reiterate their intention to abide by the federal commissar's instructions to withhold deliveries.
While it was revealed at the conference that the occupation of Dortmund was the price paid for the commissar's action French cities in Essen declined to disclose the nature of the additional penalties to be exacted.
Reports are widely current that Muenster will be the next large place to fall; yet these are actually received because that city is so far outside the so-called Ruhr area.
It is pointed out that Muenster possesses great strategic importance. Its occupation would aid greatly in effecting control of the Ruhr traffic as the occupying forces are reported to be planning.
Control Stations Established
Control stations have been established on the lines about Essen, freight trains are being required to stop while their papers are inspected. It is feared here that one of the steps in the program of occupation will be to place such a tight ring of patrols about the occupied territory that the rest of Germany will be deprived of Ruhr coal. It is stated in German quarters that no more freight cars are being permitted by the railroad administration of unoccupied Germany to enter the Ruhr and hundreds of cars were hurried off during the first stages of the occupation.
Entente engineers today went to six mines in the neighborhood of Essen and endeavored to determine whether deliveries were being resumed and to obtain data. They were unsuccessful.
One of the labor leaders gave it as his opinion that probably the miners would continue at work whether the occupying forces finally obtained deliveries for cash or resorted to confiscations. The miners, he said, would have to keep employed in order to support their families, this economic necessity would force them to overlook whether French or German capital was paying them. He therefore believed a strike was not likely unless the entente tried to extend the working day of the miners.
Other German circles declare that the funds of the miners' unions are so low that a strike could not be supported for more than a fortnight.
The Bochum disorder of yesterday is the sole instance of serious disturbance since the French and Belgian troops came into the district.

TEAPOT DOME NAVAL OIL RESERVE BEING PROBED BY COMMITTEE

Investigates Controversy Raging Around
Lease by the Harding Administration—
Harry F. Sinclair is Examined—Does Not Mention Teapot Dome Lease in Testimony

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The surface of the controversy which has raged for nine months about the action of the Harding administration in leasing the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve to the Sinclair interests was scratched by the senate oil investigating committee today in its initial examination of Harry F. Sinclair, chairman of the board of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation.
Mr. Sinclair spent three hours on the witness stand detailing the organization of the many oil companies in which he is interested. The matter of the Teapot Dome lease was not mentioned by him in his testimony but after describing the organization of the Mammoth Oil company which now is operating the national reserve under the lease granted last April by Secretary Fall, he offered and Chairman LaFollette accepted for the committee record, an offer which Mr. Sinclair said he made for virtually the entire stock of the Mammoth company.
This offer which was put into the record without it being read just as adjournment was taken, was dated March 9, just about a month before Mr. Sinclair obtained the signature of Secretary Fall to the Teapot Dome lease. In it Mr. Sinclair said:
"I propose to make an effort to secure and cause the execution and delivery to Mammoth Oil company by the United States government acting thru the secretary of the interior by and with the consent and approval of the secretary of the navy, of an oil and gas lease and contract covering approximately 9,321 acres of land in Natrona county, Wyoming, included in the executive order of withdrawal issued by the president of the United States on April 20, 1915, creating Naval Petroleum Reserve No. 3, Wyoming No. 1."
The text of the offer further showed that in return Mr. Sinclair was to receive all but ten shares of the 2,005,000 shares of stock in the Mammoth company.
Introduction of the offer without reading and adjournment of the committee before further testimony could bring out its relation to the Teapot Dome controversy left a crowded committee room without the sensation which was expected to attend the appearance of Mr. Sinclair before a committee headed by Senator LaFollette, one of the most bitter critics of the grant to a lease to Teapot Dome and to the Sinclair interests.
Development of the points involved in the controversy thru committee questions tomorrow appeared tonight to be improbable.
Senator LaFollette's committee has been charged by the senate solely with an investigation into conditions in the oil industry and into the prices of oil, particularly gasoline. Furthermore, the senate public lands commission is to investigate the Teapot Dome matter.
Authorizes Statement
Mr. Sinclair after being on the stand authorized the statement that he was desirous of explaining his part in the Teapot Dome matter and that he had been prepared for months to appear before any authorized government agency and present the facts in the case.
Mr. Sinclair answered the questions relative to the organization of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation and two of its subsidiaries, the Sinclair Pipe Line company and the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing company. The Sinclair Consolidated and the Standard Oil company of Indiana each hold half of the stock in the two subsidiaries and divide equally among themselves the directorate of the two companies, Mr. Sinclair testified.
Testimony as to the details of the intricate organization of the more than a dozen Sinclair companies also included dividend payments and presentation of figures showing that the Sinclair Consolidated, since its organization and up to last June 30, has earned a net of $22,334,000.

CONSIDERATION OF CAPPER BILL NEARLY COMPLETED

Final Action, However,
Goes Over Until
Today

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Consideration of the Capper farm credits bills was nearly completed today by the senate but final action went over until tomorrow with the other credit measure, the Lenroot-Anderson bill, scheduled to be taken up immediately after its disposal. Little criticism of the principles of the Capper bill was voiced in today's discussion altho its efficacy was scouted by some Republicans as well as Democrats.
Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, said he hoped it would not prevent enactment of "real" farm credit legislation, declaring the co-operative credit associations proposed would not be of much aid to agriculturists except livestock growers.
An amendment by Senator Norbeck, Republican, North Dakota, change the title of the bill to the "Federal Livestock and Agricultural Loan Act," was accepted by Chairman McLean of the banking committee and adopted by the senate. The new title is based on the co-operative credit corporation principle of the bill.

BONUS APPEAL READY FOR FILING

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 16.—The appeal from the decision of Judge E. S. Smith of the Sangamon county circuit court dismissing the injunction bill brought to test the constitutionality of the bonus act was prepared today ready for filing in the supreme court tomorrow.

"We believe the court will grant our motion and that the case will be heard early in the term," said Mr. Bainum. "It is probable the court will render an oral decision to be followed by a written opinion. We expect to have the court's decision about the middle of February."
The service recognition board continued to receive large numbers of bonus applications today. The applications are being filed but they will not be opened until after the official drawing which has been set for January 24. As soon as the drawing has been completed the board's machinery for approving the claims will be set in motion.

Prigadier General Sawyer, the president's personal physician, emphasized there was nothing serious in Mr. Harding's condition.
The first intimation that the president was indisposed was given at the usual Tuesday conference with newspapermen.

CONSIDERATION OF CAPPER BILL NEARLY COMPLETED

Final Action, However,
Goes Over Until
Today

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Consideration of the Capper farm credits bills was nearly completed today by the senate but final action went over until tomorrow with the other credit measure, the Lenroot-Anderson bill, scheduled to be taken up immediately after its disposal. Little criticism of the principles of the Capper bill was voiced in today's discussion altho its efficacy was scouted by some Republicans as well as Democrats.
Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, said he hoped it would not prevent enactment of "real" farm credit legislation, declaring the co-operative credit associations proposed would not be of much aid to agriculturists except livestock growers.
An amendment by Senator Norbeck, Republican, North Dakota, change the title of the bill to the "Federal Livestock and Agricultural Loan Act," was accepted by Chairman McLean of the banking committee and adopted by the senate. The new title is based on the co-operative credit corporation principle of the bill.

BONUS APPEAL READY FOR FILING

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 16.—The appeal from the decision of Judge E. S. Smith of the Sangamon county circuit court dismissing the injunction bill brought to test the constitutionality of the bonus act was prepared today ready for filing in the supreme court tomorrow.
Noah Bainum, attorney for the plaintiffs, will file with the appeal a motion asking the court to advance the case on the docket so it can be heard at the term opening February 6.
"We believe the court will grant our motion and that the case will be heard early in the term," said Mr. Bainum. "It is probable the court will render an oral decision to be followed by a written opinion. We expect to have the court's decision about the middle of February."
The service recognition board continued to receive large numbers of bonus applications today. The applications are being filed but they will not be opened until after the official drawing which has been set for January 24. As soon as the drawing has been completed the board's machinery for approving the claims will be set in motion.

A THOUGHT

Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, and compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks which ye have kindled.—Isaiah 50:10.

The way to mend the bad world is to create the right world.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The budget appropriation ordinance passed by the Jacksonville city council sets apart for the various departments funds equivalent to the expenditures of the past year. The good purpose of the system is to hold expenditures within expected receipts. The task is one which any city administration finds difficult.

The Minnesota general assembly proposes to pass a law prohibiting the wearing of hoods which purpose to conceal the face. The new law is of course designed to do away with the practice of the Ku Klux Klan. Now an Illinois legislator is proposing to introduce a measure of similar intent. It will be interesting to note with just what enthusiasm the general assembly receives this measure.

How it happened nobody seems to know, but statistics disclose the fact that more passengers were carried by the trolley lines of the United States in 1922 than was true in the year previous. This happened in the face of the fact that the trolley line business is not in flourishing condition.

The Cloverleaf Life & Casualty Co. is a business institution in which Jacksonville has an interest. The home office gives employment to a large number of people and the fact that the company is soon to begin the erection of a commodious office building gives proof of faith in this city.

It is gratifying to note that the reports presented at the annual meeting of the stockholders held yesterday disclosed a year of progress and the indications that business will continue to be developed in a constantly widening field.

The residents of Woodson are to be commended for the spirit that they are showing in organizing for the development of community spirit. The plan contemplates that the new school building will be a sort of a community house, where general social activities may center. The banding together of the men and women of the town in the new organization with the pledge to support all things that are for the building of the commercial, social and economic life of the town cannot fail to bring good results, if unity of effort be continued.

THE PASSING OF MR. BUTLER.

The death of John M. Butler brings to an untimely close a life of great promise. The word "promise" is not just applicable for the comparatively young Mr. Butler had thru the nine years of his professional life given proof of unusual ability. In the past year he had furnished a fine example of the courageous spirit meeting the difficulties that life

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

SHIPS

By Berton Braley

THE Stately Spanish Galleons were splendidly romantic,
Bearing golden treasure far across the surging main,
But a mighty modern liner, smashing through the broad Atlantic,
For me has greater wonder than the Galleons of Spain;
Neither storm nor tide can bind her as she throws the miles behind her,
With the thrust of purring turbines and the kick of spinning screws;
Oh, the might of steam that urges as she bucks the ocean surges,
While the breath of all her boilers goes a-roaring up her flues!

THE Stately Spanish Galleons—a flock of them beside her
Would look like pleasure barges for a picnic down the bay,
And looking from the upper deck the passengers who ride her
Would wonder that such cockle shells would tempt the ocean spray;
Those little ships have glory which is told in song and story,
But the liner, too, is epic as she swings from out the dock,
On a steady passage over from the Ambrose Light to Dover,
On a schedule adjusted to the minute by the clock.

THE Stately Spanish Galleons were playings of the oceans,
They tossed, close-reefed and battened, when the tempest showed its force,
But the liner is disdainful of the salt sea's gusty notions,
And slams along regardless on her predetermined course;
She's the child of skill and science, she's the human mind's defiance
Of the whirlwind and the tempest and the fog and driving snow;
Clean, serene, superb, gigantic—oh, to me she's more romantic may bring. Mr. Butler looked to be future undiminished, no matter what the pain of the present day.
Than the Stately Spanish Galleons that went sailing long ago!

It was that spirit that caused one intimately associated with him to say yesterday "His was a remarkably spirit and I have never seen the equal of the courage he has displayed." Then he added, "The strength of his spirit was equaled only by his unusual intellect."

THE FUTURE IN BUSINESS.

Forbes Magazine in discussing what may happen in the business year had these worth while suggestions:

Keep in intimate touch with your banker or bankers.
Read newspapers which furnish the most dependable financial news and views.

Post yourself on how our farming population is faring—prosperity or depression this year will be governed in no small measure by the measure of prosperity or depression experienced by our agricultural millions.

Keep your eye on congress, for out of Washington may come withering blasts of ill-considered radicalism. Indeed, what happens at Washington may have almost as much effect on business as what happens agriculturally.

Scrutinize internal developments.
Avoid being swept into extreme action or an extreme mental state. Exercise moderation.
Pay more attention to proceeding solidly than to proceeding swiftly.

Seek sure profits rather than in our unusual speculative risks. If others lose their heads, either thru ultra-optimism or ultra-pessimism, try to keep yours. Be courageous, but not blind; be courageous.

Keep within the speed laws. Don't stretch the gas if you can't see around the corner.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 16.—One Springfield coal mine today reduced the price of coal from $5 a ton to $4.50. The reduction is the result of the slackness in business caused by the unseasonably warm weather.

Aurora, Ill., Jan. 16.—Mrs. Bridget Mulligan, 102 years old, died here yesterday. She would have been 103 years old Feb. 1. She left no children and her husband died 35 years ago.

LANDIS SAYS HE HAS NO JURISDICTION

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The dropping of the Port Huron, Michigan, club, following the reorganization of the Michigan-Ontario Baseball league and the taking over its franchise by the league is a matter which should be handled by the National Board of Arbitration of Minor Leagues, Commissioner Landis declared tonight when the case was brought to his attention by Louis Bergman, president of the Port Huron club.

"I have no jurisdiction in the matter," the commissioner said. Mr. Bergman appealed to the commissioner, he said, after he had failed to receive a satisfactory ruling from either Secretary Farrell or President M. H. Sexton of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

IS THIS YOU

Weariness, discouragement and fear frequently depress you as you climb toward the top of the difficult mountain, Success.

And the weakening of your grip—the temptation to let go and abandon the struggle—is apt to occur most strongly when you are almost at the top. This is natural for a climber grows more and more exhausted as he nears the mountain peak.

The idea is illustrated above. In the pen picture by Artist Satterfield. He shows a young man near the top, stricken with sudden fear because he has just made a mis-step. Observe that his feet have loosened small rocks. But he still has his grip. And he will not fall unless he loses his nerve, his fighting spirit.

The mountain, Success, can be climbed. That is proved by millions who have already climbed it.

FIGHT ON ARMY BILL BREAKS IN THE HOUSE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The fight of the rivers and harbors bloc to increase the waterways appropriation in the army bill broke in the house today when Chairman Dempsey of the rivers and harbors committee announced that he would offer an amendment increasing the item from $37,000,000 to $56,589,910. This he said had been recommended by the army engineers.

Basing his plea on the needs of transportation Mr. Dempsey urged the necessity of immediate appointment of the inland waterways and the coast harbors in order to make them more available for transportation to relieve the congestion of freight movement and to take care of what he described as a national crisis, fraught with grave danger to the agricultural and industrial interests of the country.

WOODSON ORGANIZES COMMUNITY CLUB

Business Men Prepare to Boost Home Town Along Various Lines—Gift Campaign Runs From Present Date to July 4th.

The men of Woodson have organized a club for the dual purpose of increasing the community spirit and attracting new residents to that town. The Woodson Community club is the name of the new organization, and the work will be divided into three departments, social, commercial and economic.

The club will seek to foster everything which is for the good of the community and the officers and members believe that with the proper emphasis upon the get-together spirit that a great deal can be accomplished for the up-building of the little town that thru the years they have all learned to love.

The new organization begins its work with the following officers:

President—L. A. Fitzsimmons. Vice president—J. H. Shirley. Secretary—treasurer—Hugh Hagan.

Directors—S. J. Baxter, Fred Kitcher, George Brogdon.

In addition to officers, committees have been formed to serve for a period of three months. The committees are as follows:

Publicity—A. E. Fowell, J. C. Colton, C. O. Gordon.

Membership—C. O. Gordon, Fred Quimby and A. E. Powell.

Vigilance and sick visitation—S. J. Baxter, J. H. Shirley, H. L. Owings.

Special gift campaign—S. J. Baxter, Herbert Owings, J. H. Shirley.

As indicated, the organization as now effected is for a three months' period during the time of preliminary work, and it is expected that there will be reorganization at the end of the three months.

In urging Woodson as a desirable place to live the residents will emphasize the fact that the town not many months hence will be on a hard road. It is said that Woodson can boast more concrete sidewalks than any other town of the size in Illinois.

Plans are under way for the erection of a new school building. When constructed it will be along lines to provide for community features and the school house is expected to be a sort of a community house, with all that it means in modern usage.

The new club has already undertaken one project in the line of commercial development. A gift campaign has been inaugurated along the general lines of the one which was so successful in Jacksonville during recent days.

The Woodson campaign is to continue from the present time up until July 4, when Woodson is to have a celebration. At that time gifts to the number of 50 or 60 will be distributed. The most valuable gift will be a Ford car. All of the gifts are soon to be displayed in the Colton & Baxter building.

Woodson has its bank and elevator, churches, school and the various other things that are essential in the all around development of community life and no doubt the new organization will be very helpful in making the town both bigger and better.

Sessions Will Be Held in Cooperation With Illinois League of Women Voters Jan. 29-31.

More than five hundred women from all sections of the state are expected to attend the Northwestern University School of Citizenship which will be held on the campus Jan. 29-31. This is the first time that the attempt has been made on such a large scale to instruct women in the middle west in the fundamentals and operations of voting.

The school is held in co-operation with the Illinois League of Women Voters and the president, Miss Julia C. Lathrop, will preside on the opening day. Miss Lathrop will discuss "The Enforcement of Child Labor Legislation" on the following day. Other prominent speakers will be Prof. Robert H. Gault of the psychology department, who will discuss "Problems in Social Behavior," Prof. Kenneth Colegrove, associate professor of political science, whose address will be on the theme, "The President and His Cabinet," and Prof. F. S. Deibler, head of the economics department, who will speak on "Functions and Powers of Federal Boards."

Mrs. H. W. Cheney, former president of the league, in discussing the program said: "It is designed to give a practical background to aid women voters in decisions of supreme importance in party government. The league does not countenance endorsement of any candidate, but is striving to make the individual choice of every woman voter dependent on fact and effect, not on chance or hearsay."

An organ recital by Edwin S. Seder, director of the organ department of Northwestern, will be one of the features of the first day's program. There will also be a personally conducted tour of the campus and classrooms and various social features have been arranged for the benefit of visitors.

THE VALUE OF SIGHT

Sight is priceless; it has no market value. Sight can neither be bought nor sold. Its value cannot be estimated because there is nothing with which it can be compared.

It is man's duty to conserve and preserve sight. Do not abuse, but try to appreciate what sight does for you, by giving the eyes the care and consideration they require. Do not tax them beyond what they can stand. When they become tired, rest them. If they need glasses, procure and wear them.

COMMISSION IS UNABLE TO REACH ACCORD ON DEBTS

British Suggest Interest Rate Of Three Per Cent

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The American and British debt commissions were unable today to bring into accord their views as to the terms of the settlement of Great Britain's war debt to the United States. Further negotiations were suspended until Thursday with the British meantime seeking additional instructions from their government.

The subject matter of the conversations at today's joint session was carefully guarded but there were indications that the present difference had to do largely with the question of interest rate. It was reported that the British mission had suggested three per cent and that this had been approved yesterday by the British cabinet.

It was learned authoritatively that at previous sessions there had been discussions of the statement that three per cent was the average rate of government loans in normal times and that the figures examined by the commissions had appeared to support this contention.

Since this figure is considerably below the rate of interest now paid by the American government on the money borrowed and advanced to Great Britain some members of the American commission were represented as feeling that they hardly would be justified in recommending such a figure to congress.

While the state of the negotiations after today's session was described officially as practically the same as that existing after the previous meeting on Friday, but the Americans and British expressed hope that an agreement in principle would be reached before the end of the present conversations. Stanley Baldwin, British chancellor of the exchequer, head of London mission, is still anxious to sail for home next Saturday but it was said that it was a possibility that the mission might remain over unless an accord was reached before that time.

THE DAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

(By The Associated Press)

President Harding was forced by a cold to curtail his engagements. His condition was not regarded as serious.

Debate continued in the senate on the Copper rural credits bill, with Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, criticizing provisions of the measure.

Representative Bourke Cockran, Democrat, New York, declared in the house that regardless of any effort the government might make, the eighteenth amendment could not be enforced in certain sections.

Administration officials continued to insist that the American government was entirely disassociated from the reparations suggestion placed before the reparations commission by Roland W. Boyden, unofficial observer for the United States.

Harry F. Sinclair, chairman of the board of the Sinclair Consolidated oil corporation testified before a senate subcommittee that net earnings of the corporation from its organization in 1919 to last June totalled $22,384,000.

Representative Thomas, Democrat, Kentucky, member of the house judiciary committee declared in a minority report that the committee failed to investigate impartially the Keller impeachment charges against Attorney General Daugherty.

The American and British debt commissions failed to reach an agreement for refunding Great Britain's war debt to the United States and further conversations were postponed until Thursday while the British cable their government for further instructions.

Why Pearls are Rare and Costly

It has been long believed that pearls are costly because rare when the real facts are that the scarcity is in a sense artificial—the result of the greed of man and the wasteful process of nature.

In the process of generation the pearl oyster is prolific, the egg product of a single oyster running into millions—the more pearl oysters the more pearls produced.

When, as in Ceylon, the government allows oyster fishing the natives rush in and mercilessly denude the beds, destroying more than are taken, and it must be remembered that the oyster takes a series of years to mature which means, as now operated that genuine pearls are and will continue "A Rare and Costly Gem."

Next week we will tell you something of the natural enemies of the pearl oyster which causes death and destruction over wide areas.

YANKEE FIVE WINS FROM MURRAYVILLE

Local Five Gets Revenge for Defeat Earlier in the Month—Game Is Close and Exciting.

* Reversing the decision of the game played at Murrayville January 3, the Yankee Five defeated Murrayville High School in Liberty hall Tuesday evening by a score of 28 to 26.

The game was hard fought and both teams put everything they had into the contest and the score was close through. Either team had a chance to win the game right up to the final whistle.

The Yankees showed some excellent offensive and defensive work and it was their defense in the second half that had much to do with the final result. The Murrayville boys were held to three baskets in the final half while the Yankees registered six. For the Yankees the scoring was done by McKee, Murgatroyd, Costello, Cooney and Curtis. McKee led his team with a total of 12 points. For Murrayville Wright, Woods, Carlson and Mawson scored Murrayville's points, with Wright as the high scorer. The score:

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 16.—The Kentucky Derby, annual Blue Grass racing classic for a purse of $50,000, will be held at Churchill Downs May 19, the third Saturday in May, or one week later than the traditional date in order not to conflict with the Preakness stake at Pimlico, it was announced today. The Kentucky Jockey club made formal application to the state racing commission today for that date and it was granted.

Other spring meet dates were: Lexington, April 28 to May 9; Louisville May 12 to June 2; Latonia June 5, July 2.

DOKAYS DEFEATED STRONG BLUFFS FIVE

Demonstrate They Have a Real Basketball Team—Display Excellent Team Work in Second Half.

The Dokays demonstrated that they have a real basketball team when they defeated the strong Bluffs Independents in David Prince gymnasium Tuesday evening by a score of 33 to 15.

The game was hard fought during the first half as the Dokays were unable to get started. However, in the second half, the locals got their offensive working and with a display of some of the best team work ever seen on a local floor rolled up 24 points while holding Bluffs to six points.

At the end of the first half the score was a tie, 9 all and fans were kept in a turmoil of excitement and it looked as tho the Dokays had met their match. Bluffs put up a stubborn defense and the Dokays forwards were unable to break thru it. The Dokays guards were just as effective and held Bluffs down and in the second half the Bluffs forwards were completely smothered by the Dokays guards.

Bluffs presented a formidable lineup against the locals. It contained Rolf, Kliver, Northrup and Thompson, all former Bluffs high school stars and men who know the game of basketball from all angles. Their stuff was not good enough, however, to stop the local five.

It is the intention of the Dokays to establish such a record that Petersburg will finally be compelled to meet them. The local players feel that Petersburg thinks they are not quite fast enough and believe that they can demonstrate their right to play any independent team in this section by meeting and defeating all of the good independent teams that will play them.

Last night's game was witnessed by a large crowd and it was well repaid for the game while not close was hard fought and the Bluffs boys were game and never quit trying even when defeat was staring them in the face. The score:

CALL OFF BOUT OF MITCHELL-DUNDEE

"Pack Up Ruhr Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag"

In came the French and out marched the Americans. Here are U. S. doughboys on the Rhine preparing to quit the tinder-box which may burst into flaming warfare at the first clash between native Germans and the invading French.

WEILMAN ALWAYS TROUBLESOME FOR TYRUS COBB

Ty Cobb holds most of the individual batting records of the American League.

Cobb, in establishing so many batting records, has been able to hit consistently, either right or left-handed pitching.

Southpaws are generally credited with being much harder for left-handed batters to hit than their right-handed brethren. While Cobb admits this is true to a certain extent, he says that southpaws as a whole do not handicap him to any extent.

What pitcher, in his 18 years in the American League, has been the most troublesome to Cobb? Off hand you might think it was some of the big stars of the game—fellows like Walter Johnson, the late Rube Waddell, or Cy Young, now living the life of a gentleman farmer.

Nothing doing on that line of reasoning, Cobb frankly admits that Carl Weillman of the St. Louis Browns, who was forced to quit baseball last year because of poor health, gave him more trouble than any other pitcher in the American League.

Weillman, by many American League players, was regarded as a "nothing pitcher." In baseball, a "nothing pitcher" is one who has just ordinary speed and a fair curve.

That was the most of Weillman's repertoire, but in addition he had a change of pace and wonderful control. "Weillman knew the type of ball I liked least, and just where I didn't like it. He would proceed to serve me on such a diet through the entire game," is Cobb's explanation of why Weillman proved so troublesome. In other words, he always pitched intelligently.

KAISER SEEKS MATCH WITH JOE LYNCH

Jonny Kaiser, rising young bantamweight boxer is rapidly putting St. Louis on the pugilistic map. He is one of the leading contenders for the featherweight title now held by Joe Lynch.

Pugilistically, St. Louis has been on the Fritz. While Missouri's metropolis can snub many neighbors with George Sisler for the American League batting champion Rogers Hornsby for the National League swat king, the Scullins at the national soccer champs, Eddie Held as the winner of last summer's polo tourney for players not identified with clubs, there has never been a stir for a title until Johnny Kaiser qualified for the bantamweight class.

Kaiser, now at the age of 18, is regarded as the fanciest piece of padded mitt machinery ever developed in St. Louis. Graduating from the amateur class of simonpures with a knockout punch, he has advanced to the gates of Joe Lynch's pedestal.

Fighting as an amateur for three years, Kaiser won 43 out of 66 bouts with a knockout punch. And that warrior, is what has impressed the Mound City sharps. Kaiser is built along the same lines as Lynch, tall slender and as active as a cat.

His most prominent bouts have been with Pal Moore Jack Woulfe Ashton Donza, Billy Masegitt and Young Montelal.

Up until several weeks ago Kaiser had never engaged in a bout away from his home arena. However, he is going through the test at present and is in New York to prove that he is entitled to a match with Lynch.

HOWLING TEACHERS AND SCREAMING WIDOWS
Macomb, ILL.—Not to be out done by their brethren of the "Howling Teachers," the girls of Macomb academy have organized "The Screaming Widows." The purpose of the "Screaming Widows" is, of course, to scream. The men of the school formed an organization to root for the college basketball team. They called it "The Howling Teachers." As far as that went it was all right, but they roused the ire of the girl students by decreeing that no member would be permitted to sit at the games with a feminine companion, but must sit with the Howlers that the volume of noise might be concentrated.

And bachelors are as hard to understand as widows are easy.

GARY ASKS HELP TO ELIMINATE THE TWELVE HOUR DAY

Head of Steel Organization Would Hasten the Day

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation has urged his directors to help him hasten elimination of the 12 hour day from the steel industry according to an article appearing in the New York Tribune.

The appeal of the corporation chief is said to have been spoken from a "confidential memorandum" delivered before the board on Monday at which time Mr. Gary broke his long silence concerning the Interchurch World movement's report on the steel strike of 1919, to denounce as "prejudiced, grossly unfair and venomous" the report's attack on the corporation's labor policy.

In defense of his labor policies Judge Gary is quoted as having said: "We may and probably will be asked to do or not to do certain things which give us much concern because after the most painstaking construction, we meet insurmountable difficulties."

"Connected with the question of moral principle is involved the treatment of our workmen. They must always be treated justly, fairly, and humanely. Working conditions must be safe and reasonable. If the work is arduous and continuous the hours must be comparatively short. If the hours are long there should be frequent rest interruptions."

"No workmen will be asked or permitted to work to the injury or prejudice of health. The living conditions of the workmen and their families must be healthful, comfortable and pleasant."

"I trust we will give no cause for reasonable complaint. This is our obligation and equally our pleasure."

The steel company's report on its investigation of the 12-hour day problem will be ready by May, said Mr. Gary. "I am not going to argue in favor of the 12-hour day," he continued. "I am opposed to it if and when it can be eliminated; not because I think it is necessarily harmful, but largely for the reason that there is more or less public sentiment against it. This I think, does not include more than very few of the workmen themselves."

GOLF CHAMPIONS HAVE HARD TIME TO HOLD TITLES

No sport is so fickle with its champions as golf. It is the exception to the title holder in any class to hold his crown for more than a year. "Chick" Evans, holder of the western amateur championship in 1921, is one of the few crack players who succeeded in retaining his title in 1922.

OPTIMISTIC OVER WAGE SETTLEMENT

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 16.—Illinois Miners' state officials, leaving here tonight for the joint conference of operators and miners starting in New York January 18, were optimistic over the prospects of a settlement that would prevent a strike next April. President Frank Farrington, Vice President Harry Fischwick, Secretary Walter Tesbit, state officials, and Michael Pietzark of Oglesby, Charles Grace of Harrisburg, Dave Wilson of O'Fallon and R. W. McAllister of Duquoin will represent Illinois in the conference.

"We have every reason to believe," said Mr. Farrington, "that the conference will extend the existing wage agreements for a period of at least one year, thereby preventing a miners' strike April 1st."

MILLIKIN LOSES BY ONE POINT

DECATUR, Ill., Jan. 16.—Coming back in the last nine minutes of play Millikin scored twelve points to St. Viator's two, then fell short of a point of winning, the Irish coping by a 19-18 score here tonight.

St. Viator's last two points which gave it victory, came when Sweet, Millikin's rattled right guard, passed the ball to Winterhalter, the Irish left forward, who soled under the basket he defended. Winterhalter dropped in the ball.

SECOND ROBBER IS UNDER ARREST AT KANSAS CITY

Isaac Brown, Implicated in Cully Shooting, is Captured

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 16.—Isaac Brown, 29, negro, was arrested here tonight, and is held by the police in connection with the shooting January 10 of Elmer Cully at Jacksonville, Illinois. Brown signed waivers tonight and will be turned over to the Illinois authorities, the police said.

The arrest of Brown completes the work of the police in the Cully shooting which aroused the citizens of the city and surrounding country more than any that has occurred since the killing of Cashin about 12 years ago.

Tuesday evening Chief of Police Kiloran received word from Kansas City that Brown was under arrest there. Chief Kiloran immediately got in communication with police headquarters in that city and verified the report and was told that Brown was willing to return without extradition papers. Mr. Kiloran expects to leave today for Kansas City to bring Brown back.

At about the same time messages were received here from the Kansas City Journal and Star asking for stories of the shooting. These papers were under the impression that Cully had been killed.

When LeRoy Hicks was arrested in Galesburg and brought back here he confessed to the shooting saying that Brown was his companion. However, he claimed he did not know where Brown lived. The local police had a tip that Brown might be located in Kansas City and the authorities there were notified to be on the lookout for him. His description was sent there and resulted in his arrest Tuesday.

State's Attorney Robinson has asked that the grand jury be convened for the indictment of the February term of court. Brown also will be indicted at the same time and it is probable that the men will soon be serving sentences at Chester penitentiary.

Mitchell recently was awarded a championship belt following a contest conducted by a Minneapolis sporting publication and expects shortly to defend his title. Mitchell said today that he notified the National Boxing association that he would agree to defend his title in a contest any opponent which the national organization might select.

DEFENSE OFFERED TO SUBMIT CASE WITHOUT ARGUMENT

Attorneys for Prosecution Refuse to Accede to Plan

(By The Associated Press.) MARION, Ill., Jan. 16.—(By The Associated Press.)—An offer to submit the fate of the five men charged with the murder of Howard Hoffman, one of the victims of the Herrin riots to the jury, immediately without argument or instructions was made by the defense today at the close of the state's rebuttal.

After a hurried conference among attorneys representing the prosecution Otis Glenn, assistant attorney general, announced that they desired the case to take its usual course with both arguments and instructions to the jury and asked what time the defense wished for argument.

"We reserve the right to end the arguments at any time and we will make no promises," A. W. Kerr, chief counsel for the defense declared.

"We also reserve the same right," Mr. Glenn retorted and Judge J. G. Hartwell announced that the argument would begin tomorrow after counsel had submitted instructions to him.

DR. STAFF WILL OPEN LOCAL HOSPITAL

Day Property on West State Street Purchased by Well Known Osteopathic Physician

Dr. L. E. Staff yesterday purchased from W. H. Self the property at 1005 West State street. This property, a number of years ago was remodeled on an extensive scale by Dr. J. A. Day, who used it for hospital purposes.

Dr. Staff is acquiring the building with the intention of later opening an osteopathic hospital. Possession is to be given about February 1 and it is possible that Dr. Staff and family may remove there from their Jordan street residence. It is not the intention to open the hospital until a somewhat later date.

Dr. Staff, who has been very successful in his profession, has taken extended post-graduate work both in Denver, Colo., and in Kirksville, Mo., and is thoroughly familiar with the most modern methods used in osteopathy. He recently installed an Oscilloclast which is used in connection with the E. R. A. theory of electronic reaction. This apparatus is for use both in diagnosing and treating certain forms of disease.

Other apparatus of the most approved type has also been installed by Dr. Staff and as his hospital is developed and equipped it will be found modern in every way.

ONTARIO'S PEAT BOGS MAY BE DEVELOPED

TORONTO.—Fuel can be manufactured in commercial quantities and at reasonable prices from Ontario's peat bogs. This statement is made in an interim report of a committee appointed seven years ago by the Ontario and Dominion governments.

Operations under the observation of the committee have been on near Alfred, Ont. and as a result it is stated the committee will recommend the construction and operation of a perfected peat-producing plant. The committee estimates that a plant producing 10,000 short tons during a season of 100 ten-hour working days can turn out finished peat fuel at a cost of $4.48 a ton, or at $3.50 working on a 20-hour day basis. The cost delivered to the consumer will be about $10 a ton, the committee estimates. Anthracite costs from $15 to $20 a ton delivered.

The committee reports that a good market has been developed within economical shipping radius of the bogs, and that the demand for peat fuel is growing.

JOHN M. BUTLER'S LIFE JOURNEY IS ENDED

Prominent Member of Morgan County Bar Dead—Funeral Will Be Held Thursday Morning.

Death came at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning to John M. Butler at his residence on West College avenue. The end was not unexpected, as Mr. Butler had been in failing health for more than a year past and his condition for a number of days had been accounted critical.

The day before his death was Mr. Butler's thirty-fourth birthday anniversary and all those years were spent in Jacksonville save a period of time spent at the University of Michigan in the study of law.

Mr. Butler was admitted to the bar of Illinois in 1913, the year he took his degree of doctor of jurisprudence at the Michigan university. The brilliance that had characterized him as a student in the Jacksonville High school, at Illinois college and the University, was early apparent in his professional work.

After practicing privately for a few years Mr. Butler was appointed master-in-chancery and served one term. Subsequently he entered into a partnership with William T. Wilson, that relationship continuing until the end.

Mr. Butler was identified with several of the most important cases that have been tried in the Morgan county circuit court in recent years. His aptitude for law was not alone one line alone, and so he was prominent both in criminal and general law practice. This so comparatively young, he had come to occupy an important place at the Morgan county bar and his ability was recognized.

Until within a year Mr. Butler had given the indications of perfect health and the counter-part of his physical vigor was seen in his mental attainments. Along with brilliance he had industry and thoroughness and it was these qualities combined that made for his unusual success.

When the time of illness came his indomitable will was revealed. He fought a losing fight with disease, but fought it with fine courage. Uncomplainingly he met the duties of each day and was found at work for many a month during which a man of weaker spirit would have been confined to his home.

As the months of illness lengthened out and he was forced to submit much of his time was spent in the study of his own disease, and the doctors who cared for him at Rochester, Minn., in Chicago and in Jacksonville after had reason to marvel at the thoroughness with which he had studied his ailment, baffling as it was to him. So a remarkable vitality sustained him but in the closing days pneumonia set in and that disease was more than his weakened system could withstand.

Mr. Butler was born in Jacksonville Jan. 15, 1889, a son of Patrick J. and Elizabeth White Butler, long respected citizens of Jacksonville. He was educated in the local schools, graduated from the Jacksonville High school and from Illinois college, finishing at the latter institution in the class of 1910.

As already indicated, his law course was taken at the University of Michigan and he took his degree at that institution in 1913 returning to Jacksonville to enter upon the practice of his profession.

The deceased was married in 1917 to Miss Bertha Irene Cox who survives him, together with two little daughters, Mary Elizabeth and Barbara Jeanne. Mr. Butler leaves also the following sisters and brothers: Miss Kathlyn Butler, Mrs. T. R. Cain, Jacksonville; Mrs. R. E. Keating, Annapolis, Md.; Misses Mary C. and Helen L. Butler, Chicago; P. J. Butler, Jacksonville, and Dr. T. E. Butler, St. Louis.

Throughout the years Mr. Butler has been a member of the Church of Our Savior and his life was consistent with the teachings of the church. Locally he held membership in the Morgan County Bar association, the Kiwanis club, the Knights of Columbus, Elks, and for several years had been a member of the American Bar association.

The funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Thursday morning from the Church of Our Savior in charge of Rev. Father P. F. Formax. Burial will be made in Calvary cemetery.

FOSSIL TUSKS APPEAR ON IVORY MARKET

London.—The latest addition to the Natural History Department of the British Museum is the skull and tusks of a Siberian mammoth, the first ever brought into Western Europe. Three skulls were dug out of the ice on one of the Siberian islands of the Arctic Preserved as it was in solid storage through countless ages, it is remarkably fresh, even to the fragments of skin still attached to the greater jaws.

By examining the teeth, which are in excellent condition and about six inches in diameter, experts have established that they belong to a full grown female mammoth. The bones of the head are snow white in contrast to the usual fossil bones, which are stained brown or black.

The tusks are 122 feet long, and the ivory is in perfect condition. Their value as ivory is placed at $1500.

Large quantities of fossilized ivory, dug up in various parts of Siberia, are now coming to England for sale. A ship load of these remains arrived recently and was sold for prices higher than paid for India ivory tusks.

The supply of such ivory, however, is limited and it will not have any material effect on the market.

AUTO SHOW SCHEDULED FOR MONTH OF MARCH

AUTO INN LEASED TO HOUSE EXHIBITS.

Members to Join With Auto Men for 1923 Show—Association Urges Repaving of some Streets and Approves Vehicle Tax—To Aid College Band.

Jacksonville is to have an automobile show and merchants exhibition. This decision was reached at a special meeting of the dealers held last night at the Dunlap hotel. The dates of the show will be Monday, March 12 to Saturday, March 17, both inclusive, and the location Zahn's Auto Inn where two of the association's three successful events have been held.

The question of repaving of certain streets in the business section was discussed and a committee appointed to confer with the mayor to see what can be done.

A continuation of the present city wheel tax was recommended and city officials complimented on the manner in which these funds have been spent.

The association went on record as wishing to do something to assist the work of the Illinois college band and aid in perfecting the work of the organization.

At a recent meeting of the auto dealers the question of holding the spring show in a large tent was raised and a committee headed by J. F. Claus was appointed to investigate the feasibility of such a plan. The committee reported that such a project was impracticable at this season of the year and a recommendation that a suitable building be obtained if possible. Accordingly Chas. M. Strawn and John G. Berger took up the matter of a lease of the Auto Inn with Howard Zahn. A lease of the entire building was concluded between these gentlemen and at last night's meeting it was ratified.

That the matter was finally settled in the manner it was highly gratifying to the entire membership and following a brief discussion President Strawn appointed the following committees:

Diagram of Building and Decorations—C. P. Joy, O. H. Cook and William McNamara.

Booths, Concessions, Dances—L. G. Berger, C. M. Strawn, J. P. Claus.

Advertising—Ralph Withee, Varfield Brown, Jr., S. W. Babb.

Entertainment—E. A. Olds, George Lukeman, A. R. Zeigler.

Reception—L. F. O'Donnell, L. E. Deppa, W. J. Houston, W. H. Cocking.

In recent years the exhibition of cars has been restricted to members of the association and in most instances exclusive concession privileges have been granted. This year it has been decided to remove all restrictions, allowing out of town concerns to show on the same terms as local dealers. It is felt that this will obtain a greater representation and be a feature that will be appreciated by the public.

The plans so far outlined call for a show and exhibition that will excel all previous efforts, and in all previous affairs of this sort held here there will be no admission charge.

New Pavement Urged.

The matter of the condition of the street pavements on West State from Church to the square; North Main from West North to the square; South Main from West College to the square; East State from Centenary church to the square and around the square, was brought up and it was the opinion of the association that some steps should be taken looking toward the paving of these streets with asphalt at the earliest possible date. Attention was called to the great benefit that would be and favorable and beneficial publicity it would give the city. Among other things it would tend to hold municipal expenditures of all sorts on the pavement around the square, without impeding traffic unduly. Messrs. Cocking, Berger and Claus were appointed a committee to confer with the mayor and city council to see what can be done and in what way the association can assist.

City Wheel Tax.

The association went unanimously on record as favoring a continuation of the present city wheel tax and complimented the city officials upon the manner in which funds previously raised in this manner had been expended.

Illinois College Band.

J. Bart Johnson, one of the faculty of the Illinois College conservatory and director of the college band, had been asked to be present to give the association some idea of the work being done toward perfecting this band. Mr. Johnson could not be present but sent in a report of its work and the ambitions he holds for it. It is felt that with suitable encouragement in the way of engagements which will provide funds for library, uniforms and frequent rehearsals, a really first class band will result on a short time. The association has promised to aid the college band and its director in every way it can.

Harold Welch, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, sent his regrets and stated in his communication that the organization he

The meeting last night was attended by the full membership of the association and was one of the most enthusiastic and harmonious yet held. An exceptional banquet had been prepared for the members on this occasion by Manager John Rule, who, is an honorary member of the dealers' association having been so elected over a year ago.

"Let's Not Buy Another Thing Till We Put the Fences Right"

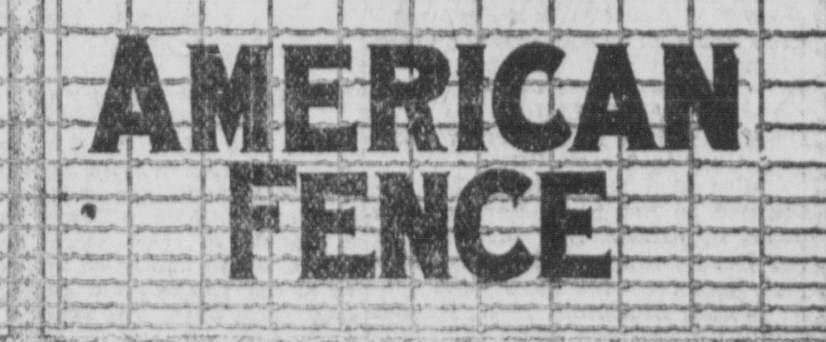

THE far-sighted farmer will say that when temptations arise to let the ready money go for some luxury. The luxury is an expense; the good fence is an investment—a producer. A farmer is losing money fast until he has his farm fenced out into a sufficient number of fields to permit of the proper rotation of crops and the most advantageous pasturing of stock.

The fields of a farm are like the rooms in a hotel—the more rooms or fields, the more revenue.

AMERICAN FENCE Made of Hard, Swift Wire of Highest Quality

Is an investment that brings the most return for the money paid out. It is made of a quality of wire drawn expressly for fencing—by the largest manufacturers of wire in the world. Galvanized by latest improved processes, the best that the skill and experience of years has taught. HAYNES SEES BETTER LAW ENFORCEMENT

Prohibition Commissioner Declares Recent Supreme Decision Will Make Liquor Laws More Effective.

Roscoe C. Andrews acting federal prohibition director for State of Illinois, is advised that Federal Prohibition Commissioner R. A. Haynes has started on a tour of Pacific coast states, in furtherance of a co-operative program out of which will develop more intensive operation of field forces, on a plane of highest possible efficiency and closer co-operation of all enforcement officials, federal, state, county and municipal, as well as individuals.

"The support volunteered by the governors, district attorneys, United States marshals, sheriffs, chiefs of police, and various other state and federal officials whom I have met with during my recent personal surveys in various sections of the country presages co-operation to an even greater extent than I had reason to anticipate," says Commissioner Haynes, who expects the same proffer of co-operation during his trip to the Pacific coast and the southwest, in demonstration of increasing activity in the interest of law observance, which reflects a wholesale public sentiment.

The recent supreme court decision, holding that prohibition violations may be prosecuted and punished by both state and federal authorities for the same offense is considered by Commissioner Haynes and all enforcement officials as a signal victory, it being in direct conformity with section 11 of the Eighteenth amendment, which divides the responsibility. In other words, the states stay to the federal government. "We will give you this responsibility of this undertaking, but we will share it with you; and our officials will do their part in its enforcement." Under this decision of the chief justice if a state court fails to mete out punishment sufficiently drastic in the opinion of the federal enforcement officers, they may institute prosecution against the offender, and the federal courts have full authority to punish him again for the same offense under the national prohibition act.

Instruction sent out by Atty. Gen. Daugherty to federal attorneys to push pending cases and to impose heaviest possible penalties, will, Commissioner Haynes believes, aid materially in gaining joint action between federal officials and local authorities.

Padlock is Success. "The response to these instructions by United States attorneys especially in applying the 'padlock' provisions, has been electrical and with such co-operation marked strides in constructive enforcement are certain," Commissioner Haynes says. "The 'padlock' provision is proving the most effective weapon we have in combating the illegal traffic in liquor and reports from every section of the country indicate that it is being invoked in every case where the circumstances warrant, with most gratifying results."

The president's conference of governors to discuss enforcement under the concurrent section of the eighteenth amendment was most opportune and resulted in a program for the present year having in mind the united efforts of all enforcement officials, federal and state. The governors, according to a statement issued immediately after, indicated "a preponderance of opinion that an earnest appeal for reverence for the law and a cordial support of law enforcement by the press would combine to cure the worst conditions reported."

"The one thing needed at this time in the testing of the ability of this great government to make and enforce its laws, is that the agencies responsible for the enforcement be courageous, patriotic friends of law and order, and of American fundamentals," says Commissioner Haynes. "If only the friends of the law occupy the pivotal position in enforcement there soon can be no question in the minds of all the people as to its enforceability.

"I have long been persuaded that fines against large violators are but very small deterrent forces, so we are now citing all breweries found guilty of violation in the United States court, on criminal information and we shall continue this program during the present year. We are not only revoking permits of the guilty, but are also refusing to re-issue permits to persons who have violated the provisions of their permits, and this has resulted in the closing down of about fifty near-beer plants in recent months.

"There are twenty-four states out of the forty-eight in the United States which are medicinally dry, and of approximately 150,000 physicians 40,000 of them reside in these medicinally dry states. Of the 110,000 remaining, between 35,000 and 40,000 hold permits to prescribe liquor, while some directors have reported that in their states less than thirty physicians hold permits to prescribe. It is now more than a year since the renewed efforts began to restrict good liquor into legitimate channels, and it is believed that it is almost as nearly achievement as possible."

Finally, Commissioner Haynes states that he is optimistically entering into the duties of the new year with the expectation that the results accomplished during the next twelve months will be even more encouraging to the friends of law and order than those of the past year have been.

CLOVERLEAF HAS HAD ANOTHER GREAT YEAR

INCREASES FOR TWELVE MONTHS REVEALED IN REPORT

Statement Read By President Rowe at Annual Meeting of Stockholders Showed Assets Increase of $129,600—Other Facts of Growth Are Equally Gratifying.

The Cloverleaf Life & Casualty company annual stockholders' and directors' meeting was held in this city yesterday. The annual statement of condition as of December 31st, 1922, was sent broadcast to hundreds of representatives of the Company through the 29 states in which the Cloverleaf is operating. An analysis of the statement underscores the following facts:

Increase in Admitted Assets.
Increase in Premium Income.
Increase in Life Insurance in force.
Increase of premiums in force in Casualty Department.
Increase in Mortgage Loans.
Return of interest rates on invested funds to normal.
Decrease in mortality rate.
Increase in surplus to policyholders.

As president of the company, F. H. Rowe read his tenth annual report and message to stockholders and agents. Attention was called in this statement to the increase of the assets of over $129,600, and the fact that the mortality in the life department for the year was 43 per cent of the expected mortality. Reports from many parts of the country from which the Cloverleaf is receiving its volume of business would indicate an enthusiastic feeling of confidence in the organization they are representing.

This has led the offices of the company to set for the year 1923, the same goal that was accomplished by the organization in 1919 and 1920, when the premium income of the company was increased 53 per cent. Business conditions prove that this will be possible this year. An income of $2,500,000.00 has been set for a mark for the year.

The stockholders of the company re-elected the following directors to the Board for three year period: Howard C. Wade, Detroit, Mich.; F. H. Rowe, Jacksonville; Charles E. Bradish, Boston, Mass.; L. H. Clampt, Jacksonville.

A vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of Dr. Yates of Detroit, Mich., was filled by the election of Edward K. Harris, of Pasadena, Calif. The company will construct a Home Office building on the corner of East State street and East street, work on which will begin March first next.

MEMORIAL RECITAL GIVEN LAST NIGHT

Robert V. Shoemaker Baritone and Frank Collins Organist Appeared at Congregational Church—Program One of Excellence.

Last evening at the Congregational church there was given of song and pipe organ by Robert V. Shoemaker, baritone, and Frank Collins, organist. The program, of considerable variety, considering a certain lack of sprightliness which a piano would have supplied, was listened to by an audience of fair size with close attention and evident enjoyment.

Both performers are well known in Jacksonville, having appeared frequently in recital and among our music lovers. Mr. Shoemaker, it will be recalled, took a leading part in two of the operas presented by the Conservatory, and Mr. Collins has appeared with success in recitals at the Woman's college and the Conservatory as organist and pianist. He opened the program with the good old D minor Toccata and Fugue of Bach, which he performed with dignity and clear technique.

Mr. Shoemaker's first offering was also from a classic composer, one of the greatest writers for the voice, and this noble air from The Messiah was given in good oratorio style, perhaps a trifle too dramatically, but with breadth and intelligence. The Gullmatt selections which the organist gave next were grateful pieces for the instrument, and the Yon number formed a humorous study contrasting well with its predecessors. In his second group Mr. Shoemaker seemed quite at home, having recovered from a slight nervousness apparent in his opening aria, and in the Rachmaninoff song the quality of his voice and his breath control were noticeably good. The audience was especially pleased with the "On the Shore," and asked for an encore, which was granted.

After the intermission two dramatic numbers, of Loewe and Mendelssohn, were sung with much vigor and intensity. The audience was particularly interested in the third selection of this group, a song by Miss Anne Jackson of Jacksonville, who has composed an eloquent setting to the peculiarly sombre poem of Lindsay. Mr. Shoemaker himself appeared as a composer in the last group of songs, his "New Year," making a most favorable impression with its folk-song-like melody and its simple but not obvious accompaniment. For the Negro Spiritual on the program he substituted "Wait 'til Ah Put on Mah Crown," which he gave with unction. His last number brought the evening to a pleasing climax, and showed the voice of the singer in better condition than at any time during the evening.

Mr. Collins' last three organ solos were well calculated to bring out the various effects of which the instrument is capable—the instrumentation with its stirring climax, the charming melody of the Toccata. All were well played. The proceeds of the concert are to be devoted to the extension of the Helen Adams-Shoemaker library at Oak Lawn, and it is to be regretted that the church was not filled to overflowing, considering the excellence of the program and the worthiness of the cause.

The accompaniments of Mr. Collins deserve high praise.

AERIAL FIRE TRUCK IS MADE POSSIBLE

Merchants Who Participated in Gift Campaign Turn Over $3,500 to City to Aid in Purchasing Needed Equipment—Bridge Fund Also Gets Boost.

By a unanimous vote at a closing meeting Tuesday evening, the merchants who participated in the Big Gift Campaign decided to turn over to the city of Jacksonville the sum of $3,500 to be applied on the purchase of an aerial fire truck. The merchants adopted the recommendation of the Gift Campaign committee, which had discussed the matter thoroughly at a meeting on Wednesday morning, Jan. 10.

The merchants named a committee of six business men to co-operate with Mayor Crabtree, Chief Hunt and the City Council in the consideration and purchase, if feasible, of an aerial ladder fire fighting apparatus that will meet the needs of the business district in fighting fires in three story buildings. The committee consists of Lloyd S. Reid, W. J. Brady, Henry Frisch, A. R. Taylor, J. W. Merrigan and L. L. Horen.

Mr. Horen as chairman of the Gift Campaign committee, presided at the meeting. He called on Secretary Welch to read the financial statement of the campaign, which showed a balance in the treasury of $4,068.88. The secretary then read the recommendation of the committee that $3,500 be turned over to the city for use in the purchase of an aerial fire equipment, that $50 be paid into the treasury of the Commercial Division, and that the balance of the fund be applied in cleaning up the indebtedness on the Mercedes bridge fund pledge made by the Chamber of Commerce.

The chairman then called on Mayor E. E. Crabtree to tell of the need for an aerial truck. Mr. Crabtree stated that such an apparatus would have enabled the firemen to save much of the property destroyed in the recent fire on the south side of the square. Whenever a fire starts in the top of a three story building in Jacksonville, there is now little hope of a successful battle with the flames with the present equipment. It is now possible to buy such apparatus as is needed on easy payments. In the budget recently drafted by the city council for the year 1923, an appropriation of $2,000 to apply on the purchase of an aerial truck was set aside.

Chief Hunt was then called upon. While in Chicago he made some investigation as to the probable cost of such a fire fighting machine. He stated that it would cost about $15,000. The apparatus consists of a truck with a 55 or 65 foot aerial ladder, attachment several other ladders and every sort of tool needed in fighting his fires. There are at least four companies manufacturing these machines, and it is the purpose of the council and business men's committee to make thorough investigations before purchasing an aerial truck.

Following the adoption of the committee's recommendations, J. W. Merrigan made report on the Mercedes bridge fund, of which nearly $1,500 has been collected and pledged. It is the purpose of the committee to turn over about $500 to this fund, and if possible secure the obligation.

Off to school on a winter morning

—fresh and rosy—or pinched and chilly? That's a matter for Mother to decide.

Children, as well as grown-ups, need a hot mealtime beverage that is wholesome, invigorating, and free from harmful after-effects.

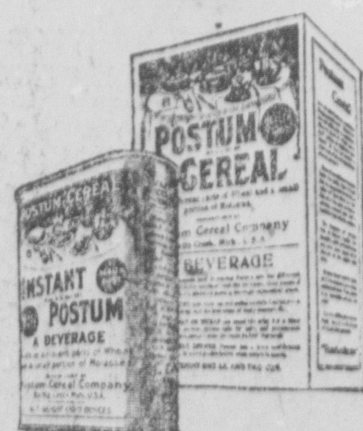

Coffee is known to be harmful—especially to children. That is why so many thoughtful mothers give their children delicious Postum. This pure cereal beverage gives needed warmth and comfort, has delightful flavor and aroma, and is free from anything that can injure the health of children or adults.

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes.

In a letter received at the office of the Jacksonville High school a report is given of the financial standing of the Illinois High School Athletic association. The report is made by L. W. The balance in the treasury on December 18, 1922, showed a total of $8,712.38. PREPARING FOR SECOND SEMESTR

Examinations Begin Next Week—Semester Opens Next Week.

The second semester of the year's work in the Jacksonville public schools will begin next week. The semester examinations at the high school began yesterday and will probably be completed by Thursday evening with the exception of a few conflict examinations which will be given on Friday.

A class of about twenty students will be graduated from the David Prince school at the end of the semester and will begin work at the high school next week. Beginning classes in English, Algebra, Commercial Arithmetic, General Science, History and Latin school to be started at the high school at the opening of the second semester. These will be for the benefit of the students entering from the eighth grade and will also enable high school students who enrolled in these classes last fall and who did not get the right kind of a start, to begin the work over again. These students will be able to do the work again and will be able to secure a half year's credit for their work instead of losing out completely.

Miss Minnie Mulberry of East St. Louis has been engaged as a new instructor in the commercial department at the high school and will begin her work here next week. Miss Mulberry is a graduate of the University of Illinois and has had teaching experience in the public schools of East St. Louis.

Classes of pupils entering the primary department in the public schools at this time will not be affected by the new policy of forming A and B sections in all the grades. However, the classes which enter the schools next fall will be smaller than in previous years because according to the new ruling the children must be six years of age in September before they are allowed to enter.

OBITUARY.

Brief funeral services for Otto Grimmert were conducted at the residence near Ashland. Further rites were held at 11 o'clock the following morning at the Woodson Presbyterian church in charge of Rev. A. E. Powell. Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery here.

Burialbearers at the services at the home were Luther Douglas, Walter Holmes, Phil Price, William Hood, Ira Barrow and Joseph Gaddis.

Music at the funeral at Woodson was furnished by Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Jones, R. R. Jones and William Colton.

The floral tributes were in care of the Misses Pauline Bell and Audrey Boston; Mrs. Ruth McFarland and Mrs. Blanche Brown.

Pallbearers at Woodson were: Ira Barrows, Lewis Wahl, Miles Fitzpatrick, Claude Winter, William Lewis and Irwin Watt. Fredress Otto Grimmert, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Grimmert, died suddenly at his home near Ashland, Ill., December 22, 1922. He was born near Palmyra, Macoupin county, November 6, 1882, and spent his early life there.

On April 9, 1910, he was united in marriage to Agnes Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Butler, of near Woodson, Ill., and became the happy father of three children who with their mother survive him: George Samuel, age 11; Ralph Leslie, age 9; and Reta Agnes, age 7. Two brothers preceded him in death, James LeRoy and Wilbur. Three brothers, and one sister are living, G. E. Grimmert of Modesto, Lueta Boston, of Girard, A. C. Grimmert of Viriden and L. A. Grimmert of Girard.

As a result of the evangelistic services in Woodson, Mr. Grimmert united with the Christian church there, later transferring his membership to Girard, Ill. After his marriage he entered the services at Unity Presbyterian church of Woodson with his wife and family. He was a very successful farmer, and of the time of his death was operating the Shoemaker farm southeast of Ashland.

He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America No. 132 Jacksonville, Ill. A man of good personal habits, kind, courteous and considerate, a friend to everyone as is evidenced from the fact that though living only ten months on the farm where he passed away, he had won his way into the esteem of all his neighbors. His home call was sudden, his loss is great, but we believe another good and righteous soul has passed into the presence of the eternal. Until the day break and the shadows flee away.

COACH HARMON ACCEPTS DATE

Coach Harmon announced yesterday that he had accepted the offer of the Drury college for a game with Illinois college here Thursday evening.

Yesterday he learned from Superintendent Shafer that the gym was available and immediately closed the contract for the game. This will give Illinois two home games this week, Drury Thursday night and St. Louis university Saturday night.

W. H. Cocking left yesterday for Chicago where he will spend a few days attending to business matters.

GEORGE H. HALL HAS KEPT GOOD RECORDS

George H. Hall, United States volunteer weather observer at Alexander, has received a report from Clarence Root, United States official weather observer at Springfield of his observations for the year just closed.

Mr. Hall finds upon comparison that he tallies almost exactly with Mr. Root's records for 1922. In the matter of rainfall the figures are exactly the same while in the matter of temperature there is only one-tenth of a degree difference. This shows Mr. Hall's reports are practically perfect.

INVESTIGATES CITY PLAN IN ST. LOUIS

Dr. David Reid Visits City Plan Commission Rooms—Brought Home Pamphlet and Books on Subject.

Dr. and Mrs. David Reid returned yesterday from St. Louis where they spent the week end with friends and attended a grand opera performance given by the San Carlos Opera company.

While in St. Louis Dr. Reid visited the city plan commission rooms and found much of interest. Dr. Reid is a member of the city plan commission recently appointed by Mayor Crabtree and naturally found much of interest and brought home ideas that should prove of value to the local workers as they proceed with their work.

He secured many pamphlets and books on city planning and also was given some idea of what St. Louis purposes to do. Dr. Reid says that the Mound city has underway gigantic plans for zoning and other improvements. Among these plans is the widening of the downtown streets which have become so congested by increasing traffic that it forms one of the city's largest problems.

Plans are under way to ask for a bond issue to carry on the improvements that have been laid out by the commission. Dr. Reid was much impressed with the possibilities of the zoning plan and believes that it can be carried out to great advantage in a smaller way in cities the size of Jacksonville.

EAGLES PLAN BIG CAMPAIGN

One of the largest campaigns ever inaugurated by the Fraternal Order of Eagles is now in progress for one million members in 1925. Secretary Fred Dohi has just received word from Past Grand President Frank E. Hering of South Bend, Ind., and for years the editor of the Eagles magazine, that South Bend Aerie has taken in the banner class so far, numbering 1012. In December a class of 842 was taken in, making a total of 1854 new members for that Aerie, in a little over one month. Although Buffalo, N. Y., has a membership of 3,000, South Bend has the honor of taking in the largest class.

At the regular meeting of Jacksonville Aerie No. 509 to be held this evening it is expected that plans will be made to enter into the nationwide campaign, and also to push the old age pension campaign now in progress.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

INVESTORS FORCE PRICE RECESSION

Day's total sales 1,000,200.
Twenty Industrials averaged 98.96, net loss .08; high 1929, 103.43; low, 78.59.
Twenty railroads averaged $4.60, net loss .75; high 1922, 93.99; low 73.43.
Total bond sales, par value, $12,175,000.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Speculators for the decline taking advantage of the more threatening complications in the German reparations situation and the liquidation on the part of the frightened investors forced another material recession in prices in today's stock market. The declines ran from small fractions to 2 and 3 points in Standard shares but the strength of the resistance at the lower levels indicated substantial support by insiders.

Domestic sterling fell as low as $4.66½, or more, than 3 points below last week's high, but advanced to $4.66½ in the late afternoon.

French francs closed at 6.81, or four points above Monday's close.

Pollish marks dropped to .004½ cents, a new low record.

Baldwin again fluctuated within a range of nearly four points, closing at 130¼ for a net loss of 2½.

Studebaker closed at 113¼, or ½ below last night's final quotation.

Other active shares to yield to selling pressure were Cocoa Cola, Mack Truck, Postum Cereal and S. Romberg Corburetor all off ¼ to ¾ points.

Anaconda and Chile Coppers, details for the merger of which were announced last night, each sold below Monday's closing levels the former dropping ¼ and the latter ½.

Rail shares held firm for a time but a number of active issues gave ground during the afternoon reaction which was accelerated by the circulation of wild rumors of war between France and Germany.

Canada-Pacific dropped 2½ points. Call money opened at 4 per cent and then eased to 3½ despite government withdrawal of $4,000,000 from focal depository banks.

The time money market was inactive. Commercial paper business was light with the prime names commanding 4½ per cent.

United States government bonds held firm in the early dealings but reacted towards the close, the issues ranging from 2 to 10 cents or $100 except in the case of the Victory 4½s, which advanced 2 cents, and the Second 4s which dropped 18.

KANSAS CITY MARKET REVIEW

Kansas City Stock Yards, Jan. 16.—The cattle receipts were smaller than a week ago, they were larger than a year ago, and fairly equal to requirements. Early last week prices in all classes were lower, but the loss was regained later and today the general position of the market was steady with last week's close. A good many thin stockers and feeders are coming from Oklahoma and Texas and the run of short fed steers, or good quality from corn belt states, is fully up to normal. Good to choice fleshy feeders can be bought at $7.25 to $7.75 and good stockers at $8.50 to $9.25. Selected fleshy feeders are selling at $7.75 to $8.25 and ordinary feeders $5.25 to $5.75. Stock calves are bringing $6 to $7.50, and stock heifers $4 to $5.25.

The trade in Texas cattle for summer grazing in Kansas and Oklahoma has started and which few actual sales have been reported, asking prices are considerably higher than a year ago. Texas has fewer aged steers to offer than for several seasons and this will probably result in a decrease in cattle being on summer grass.

Hogs prices broke 25 to 35¢ owing to liberal receipts. Stock and feeding grades were off 25 to 40¢. The top price for fat hogs was $8.10 and bulk of sales $7.85 to $8.05. Pigs and stock hogs sold at $7.25 to $8. A good many 100 to 175 pound hogs suitable for feeding can be bought worth the money.

Sheep and lamb prices declined 25 to 40¢ and at the decline trade was quiet. Fat lambs sold at $13 to $14, clipped lambs $11 to $11.85, weathers $7.50 to $8.50; ewes $6.50 to $7.50 and feeding lambs $12 to $13.75.

FOREIGN REPORTS BOOST WHEAT PRICE

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Acting buying, partly on foreign account together with war like reports such as that Germany had massed 25,000 troops facing the French advance, brought about a decided upturn today in the value of grain. Wheat closed strong 1½ to 2½ net higher, May $1.21½ to $1.21½ and July $1.14½ to $1.14½. Corn finished ¼ to ½ c. in provisions there was a rise varying from 7c to 15c.

Almost from the start wheat trading gave indications that European purchasing had broadened out, and this was associated with talk which was current that if the Ruhr invasion proved unproductive the French planned an attempt to occupy Berlin and two of the chief German seaports as a well.

Bullish sentiment thus engendered became especially pronounced after news was circulated that Germany was mobilizing military forces on a considerable scale and that a large export business in the United States was underway. It was said Great Britain had taken 500,000 bushels and that France and other European countries were also buyers.

Assertions that the movement of the Argentine crop had met with unexpected delay tended further to strengthen the wheat market here and so did continued adverse weather conditions in the domestic winter wheat territory.

Word that a panic existed in the Berlin money market, failed to have any apparent bearish influence here and with recent speculative sellers showing a flurry to reverse thereon the wheat market closed at the highest point reached in several weeks.

Corn and oats followed wheat upgrade.

Seaboard "advises" told of good export demand for corn provisions were higher with hogs.

REMAINS OF PREHISTORIC MAN

Valetta, Malta.—Scientist digging for prehistoric records in a cave on the island of Malta have found teeth which they believe belonged to a man who lived contemporaneously with the "Neanderthal man." The Neanderthal skull was found in Germany in 1856, and is said to be the oldest record of the human race in Europe.

The teeth were found in a remote section of the much frequented cave called Ghar Dalam. The visits of many souvenir hunters have made more difficult the labors of the investigators, but nevertheless they are preparing to excavate further in the hope of finding more evidences of prehistoric life.

The man who boasts his ignorance has reached the limit.

OLD JACKSONVILLE THE BIG FIRE—III

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

III
The recent fire on the west half of the south side of the Square has hardly yet ceased to be a "Nine days' wonder", and there is more to be said about the buildings west of the Strawn Block.

Marble Block
consisted of three three story stores, built of Joliet stone, which used to be called "Chicago marble."

These buildings, or this, ran back to the alley, and were attractive and creditable business places at the time they were erected. They were ready for occupation—as recalled by the writer—in the Spring of 1867.

The east store was first occupied by the dry goods firm of Smith, Barr & Co., as soon as it was ready for use.

Smith, Barr & Co., were Messrs. Charles M. Smith, of Springfield; William P. Barr, of Robert D. Landers, of Jacksonville, successors of Yates, Smith & Christian.

The Smith, Barr & Company organization continued for several years, when it was succeeded by Barr & Landers.

W. P. Barr was a mayor of Jacksonville; and father of the present, S. O. Barr, in business on West State street.

When the new store was entered—in 1867—S. O. Barr was a young clerk, and he sold the first bill of goods in the new building.

The Barrs came here from Carrollton, in 1861. R. D. Landers was a handsome bachelor, who had been here for years before, and had come from the state of Maryland. He afterwards went to California, where he died at a goodly age.

The Central Store
was first occupied, on one side, by James H. Hackett & Co., with clothing; and Marcy Brothers, with boots and shoes, on the other side of the room. Young Charles Marcy succeeded his two uncles there, and Charles Hopper succeeded him. N. R. Jerald, afterwards of Springfield, was with Mr. Hackett. John S. Hackett, now of Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie, east side of the Square, was a son of Mr. James H. Hackett.

GIVES RESULT OF CROP ROTATION

URBANA, ILL.—The system of rotation on adjacent fields at the University of Illinois changed the yield of corn from an average of 27.3 bushels to 55.3 bushels. Officials declare the results sufficient proof that adapted rotations accompanied by proper soil treatment no longer can be neglected.

"Efficient crop rotations are recognized necessity if the Illinois farmer is to continue indefinitely on his farm," states J. C. Hackleman of the University.

"There are at least three reasons aside from the economics of the question, which commend rotations to the farmer. Our average yields are sinking to levels which make farm operations hazardous, the plant diseases are becoming worse each year on lands not rotated, and insect pests always follow and take the heaviest toll where the single crop system of farming is followed."

"In the establishment of a successful rotation, the following fundamental facts must be considered and observed: choose as succeeding crops those which use a widely different proportion of plant food materials; follow a shallow-rooted with a deep-rooted crop; change type of crop as radically as possible so as to give least possible opportunity for the increase of fungus and insect pests."

"The choice of crops must be governed by a number of important factors. In a state such as Illinois, corn must obviously serve as a basis for practically every rotation scheme. Wheat throughout most of the state also should be considered as essential. Oats and barley occupy their portion throughout the northern half of the state and in the northwest central section, where livestock farming is generally practiced. Legumes are essential and should occupy as large a portion of the farm as possible. Special attention should be given to alfalfa, sweet clover, red clover and soy beans. A few rotations illustrating these principles are: corn, soybeans, wheat, clover, corn, wheat, clover; corn, soybeans, wheat (sweet clover), and corn, soybeans, wheat, clover, wheat, (sweet clover)."

WOULD DEVELOPE CITY MANAGER PLAN

Lawrence, Kans.—Greater development of the city manager form of government, which, it advocates, point out, centralizes municipal responsibility and gives the citizens more service per tax-dollar will be the object of the National City Managers' association, which recently chose the University of Kansas as its national headquarters. A monthly magazine devoted to efficient city administration will be one of the methods used to further this idea in government, states John G. Stutz, secretary of the association.

"In 1912, there were two cities with the manager form of government," Mr. Stutz says, "since that time 287 cities in thirty-eight states representing a population of 59,500,000 have adopted the plan among the larger cities with this form of government are Cleveland and Akron and Dayton, Ohio; son of Mr. James H. Hackett.

The third, or western store of the block was leased to Gurley, Pratt & Hayner, all young men new here.

They dealt in hides, leather and horse dressing. They remained several years, and each of them acquired a Jacksonville bride.

Gurley married a daughter of the Rev. W. D. R. Trotter; Pratt married Miss Julia D. Jones, and Frank Hayner got her sister, Miss Johanna Jones.

The Jones girls were daughters of Dr. Henry Jones, one of our earliest medical practitioners.

Gurley, Pratt & Hayner were succeeded by Huntley, Evans & Co., and so along by others since.

The Three Story Double Brick came next west of Marble Block, and was ready for business early in 1867, to the best of the writer's recollection.

The East Room was first used by the brothers, C. H. and Mode Teneyck, as a china store. They had been in the employ of the U. S. Express Co., here for some time.

James H. Hall, who had been in the Express Office with the Teneycks, clerked for them. This business was not kept up long, and the Brown, Durfee people from St. Louis had a dry goods store there. C. F. Brown was one of this combination. He was the father of Joseph Brown, recently deceased.

The West Room of the brick—now Bassett's place of business, was opened by Day & Stebbins, as a jewelry store. They were succeeded by King & Stebbins—Col. John W. King. After them came Jebb Brothers, also jewelers.

There were offices on the second floor of this building, and on the third floor was a nice little public gathering place, known as Odeon Hall.

A number of concerts of high order were given there, and some of the graduating exercises—of the Young Ladies Athenaeum were held there. One of these Commencements being of the class of 1869, crowded out of Strawn's Opera House, by the McConnell trial.
